New Account Manager joins Vocus Communications

Sydney: 15 June 2009 – Wholesale telecommunications specialist Paula Kalleske has joined Vocus as Account Manager. Her appointment is a key part of Vocus's ongoing strategy to deliver excellent service to its fast-growing client base.

Paula joins Vocus with nearly 10 years of industry experience including four years with Verizon. Earlier roles include AAPT/Connect and Comindico.

After the bureaucracy of the larger organizations Paula is looking forward to a more dynamic business style.

"Vocus is forward thinking, fast paced and has one of the most experienced teams in the Industry. They are committed to shaking up the wholesale telecommunications industry and delivering excellent service across the board and I'm very pleased to be part of such a successful and entrepreneurial company," she explained.

Dan Whitford, Vocus Commercial Manager, believes that Paula's strong, open communication style and industry experience will be a real asset to the company.

"Paula has worked with most of the Vocus team at Comindico so has a genuine understanding of our culture. Knowing the team also means that she instantly has a great relationship with the engineers who provide valued support to the Account Management team.

Paula's technical knowledge and industry experience mean that she can build a great rapport with clients which will ensure we will continue to deliver the excellent service our clients have come to expect from us," said Whitford.

Kalleske's appointment comes hot on the heels of record results for Vocus, when the company recorded new sales of AUD $4.5m for the quarter to March 31st.
